Shri Pawan Kumar Bansal,
Hon'ble Minister For Railways,
Rail Bhawan, New Delhi

Dear Sir,

We heartily congratulate you on taking over as the new Minister for Railways. It is a matter of pride that an able and competent person like you will now be heading the Ministry of Railways.

We are confident that the Indian Railways will prosper by leaps and bounds under your able leadership and will get the much needed impetus for an all round improvement – especially in respect of its Financial Health, safety, efficiency and quality of service.

We are also confident that the genuine aspirations of the Railway men – including those of the middle management cadres of Technical Supervisors – shall be dealt with compassion and justice under your benign leadership.

We assure you on behalf of the 50, 000 Technical Supervisors and the Railway at large, of our full and all out efforts – as ever before – to serve the Indian Railways and through it the Nation – to ensure absolute Safety, quality control, optimum utilization of available resources and highest level of efficiency,

Wishing you all the success in your new mission;

With kind regards

Yours faithfully,

(Harchandan Singh),
General Secretary, IRTSA.
